

The NIOSH National Personal Protective Technology Laboratory (NPPTL) will begin issuing certificates of approval to respirators for use during wildland fire-fighting operations. NIOSH and the Safety Equipment Institute will cooperatively coordinate certification programs to evaluate candidate respirators for compliance to NFPA 1984-2011, Standard on Respirators for Wildland Fire-Fighting Operations. For more information click here click here